

GEORGETOWN LAW

10th Annual Global Antitrust Enforcement Symposium

September 20, 2016

Join leading professionals and top international competition enforcement officials as they discuss and debate antitrust's most pertinent issues.

ABOUT

GEORGETOWN LAW, along with sponsors Baker Botts LLP, Covington & Burling LLP, Hogan Lovells, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, Bates White and Analysis Group, is proud to present its 10th Annual Global Antitrust Enforcement Symposium. The faculty includes current and former enforcement officials from the United States, European Commission, Germany, France, Hong Kong, and Mexico. This symposium is a leading forum for lawyers, policymakers, corporate executives, economists, and academics to address current issues in competition law and policy. The faculty will focus on the areas of greatest concern to multinational enterprises: what is new in global merger enforcement; cartel enforcement and policy; the range of permissive and questionable vertical restraints by companies with and without market power; perspectives and best practices from leading in-house counsel; and “hot topics” on the global enforcement agency agendas.

VENUE

The symposium will be held in the Hart Auditorium at Georgetown Law, located near Union Station and Capitol Hill at 600 New Jersey Avenue NW, Washington, DC. Georgetown Law can be accessed directly from Metro’s Union Station (Red Line) or Judiciary Square Station (Red Line).

Parking is very limited around Georgetown Law. The nearest parking garage is accessible on F Street NW just east of New Jersey Avenue NW. The day-long rate before 9 AM is $15.

Due to ongoing construction on 2nd Street, please enter McDonough Hall using the New Jersey Avenue entrance; all visitors will be required to show identification and sign in with the Department of Public Safety Officer stationed at the lobby desk adjacent to the door. For more arrival information please see www.law.georgetown.edu/cle or email cle@law.georgetown.edu

CLE CREDITS

Accreditation has been or will be requested for this program from states with mandatory Continuing Legal Education requirements. Georgetown Law is an accredited CLE provider in most MCLE states. Georgetown Law CLE is a State Bar of California approved MCLE provider.
